

John Wallace, M.D.

Is an executive member of the coalition for the eradication of viral hepatitis in Asia and the Pacific. He is a social researcher at Latrobe University in Melbourne and investigates the lived experience of people with viral hepatitis and the implications of this experience on the development of public policy.

*APASL and CEVHAP
Partnership: Its Vision for Hepatitis-free World*